NOTICE
Illegal Outdoor Storage Facilities Report

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE (2) - Tuesday, December 1, 2026

On November 24, 2026, the City of Vaughan Committee of the Whole (1) will consider and receive input from the public on a staff report that proposes to make amendments to the City's Fees and Charges By-law 051-2026 and to the City's Business Licensing By-law 122-2022 to license and regulate outdoor storage facilities operating in the City of Vaughan. The proposed changes include:

- Fees and Charges By-law amendments:
  - introducing new licensing fee for outdoor storage facilities;

- Business Licensing By-law amendments:
  - Introducing new definitions;
  - Creating new licence category for outdoor storage facilities;
  - Setting up requirements for outdoor storage facilities and administrative penalties for non-compliance with such requirements;
  - Creating a new requirement for all licensees to provide proof of their business's compliance with the Zoning By-law.
