TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS REPORT ON THE BUSINESS LICENSING, FENCE, PARKING, ANIMAL CONTROL, WATER USE, SEWER USAGE AND FEES AND CHARGES BY-LAWS

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE (2) – February 13, 2024

On February 13, 2024, the City of Vaughan Committee of the Whole (2) will consider and receive input from the public on a staff report that proposes to amend the City's Business Licensing, Fence, Parking, Animal Control, Water Use, Sewer Usage and Fees and Charges By-laws with respect to the following:

In the Business Licensing By-law:

- to clarify the application and renewal requirements for various licences and permits (including certified translation and identification requirements).

In the Fees and Charges By-law:

- to correct the fees that were incorrectly updated as part of the budget update process.

In the Fence By-law:

- to clarify that swimming pool enclosures must be completely located on the pool owner's property or property line, and to add additional wording to clarify which provisions apply to such enclosures.

In the Parking By-law:

- to update parking provisions in line with the Zoning By-law, to allow commercial vehicles to park on residential lots.

In the Animal Control By-law:

- to correct references to outdated by-laws within Animal Control By-law, as well as to clarify that pet licensing fees are non-refundable.

In the Water Use By-law:

- to standardize formatting of the existing by-law and to replace it with a new one.

In the Sewer Usage By-law:

- to standardize formatting of the existing by-law and to replace it with a new consolidated one.

The public is invited to provide comments with respect to this matter at the meeting:
