EXTRACT FROM COUNCIL MEETING MINUTES OF SEPTEMBER 25, 2012

Item 34, Report No. 33, of the Committee of the Whole, which was adopted without amendment by the Council of the City of Vaughan on September 25, 2012.

34 2012 RAVE (RECOGNIZING ARTS VAUGHAN EXCELLENCE) AWARDS & CITY OF VAUGHAN AWARD FOR HIGHER ARTS EDUCATION NOMINATIONS

The Committee of the Whole recommends approval of the recommendation contained in the following report of the Commissioner of Community Services, dated September 4, 2012:

Recommendation

The Commissioner of Community Services, in consultation with the Director of Recreation and Culture, recommends:

1. That the individuals listed in the confidential memorandum in Attachment 1 be approved to receive a 2012 RAVE Award (Recognizing Arts Vaughan Excellence) in the listed disciplines/categories and the 2012 City of Vaughan Awards for Higher Arts Education.

Contribution to Sustainability

This report is consistent with the priorities previously set by Council in the Green Directions, Vaughan, Community Sustainability Environmental Master Plan, Goal 4, Objective 4.1:

- To foster a city with strong social cohesion, an engaging arts scene, and a clear sense of its culture and heritage.

Economic Impact

The cost of the 2012 RAVE Awards and the affiliated City of Vaughan Award for Higher Arts Education program will be covered through corporate sponsorship funds raised from past and potential 2012 corporate donations, in particular funds distributed to financially assist students pursuing post-secondary arts education.

The annual cost of implementing the City of Vaughan Award for Higher Arts Education as outlined in this report is $6,000: two awards of $3,000 per year. The cost of the program will be covered through funds raised through previous sponsorship monies donated to this program.

Administration and reception costs will be paid through the 2012 Cultural Services Budget.

Communications Plan

The 2012 RAVE Awards is promoted through the City's website, social media, Recreation Guide, City Page and arts/culture related websites in addition to invitations being sent to award recipients, nominators, sponsors and other dignitaries. The award recipients will be recognized publically at a formal reception to be hosted at City Hall tentatively set for the evening of November 1, 2012.

A formal "call for submissions" to the public for RAVE Awards nominations and Award for Higher Arts Education took place between March 1, 2012 and June 29, 2012. The call for nominations was advertised on the City's website and the City Page. Nomination packages were also sent out to a wide range of individuals/organizations on the City's arts database and distributed to all City facilities, including libraries.

Item 34, CW Report No. 33 – Page 2

The City of Vaughan Award for Higher Arts Education program is promoted throughout all public, separate and private secondary schools in Vaughan; Greater Toronto Area universities, colleges, professional and commercial art schools; and is posted on the City of Vaughan and Vaughan Public Libraries websites. The award recipients will be recognized publically at a formal reception to be hosted in conjunction with the RAVE award presentation noted above.

Purpose

The purpose of this report is for Council to review and approve the list of nominees recommended by the adjudication committee to receive a 2012 RAVE Award and 2012 City of Vaughan Award for Higher Arts Education.

Background - Analysis and Options

In an effort to enhance the profile and build capacity for the arts in Vaughan, the RAVE Awards (Recognizing Arts Vaughan Excellence) program was developed and approved by Council in November 2008. The program currently in its fourth year is a vehicle to recognize the significant contributions of businesses, organizations and individuals who help develop the arts in the City.

The City of Vaughan Award for Higher Arts Education is currently in its third year. This program was established to financially assist the emerging talent of Vaughan students who are pursuing post-secondary education in the arts providing cash assistance to outstanding students who want to follow an arts career. Both programs support the goals of the Creative Together Cultural Plan approved in 2010.

A formal “call for submissions” to the public for nominations to both programs took place between March 1, 2012 and June 29, 2012. The call for nominations was advertised on the City’s website and on the City Page. Nomination packages were also sent out to a wide range of individuals/organizations on the City’s arts database and distributed to all City facilities, including libraries.

As a result, 19 nominations were received for the 2012 RAVE awards nominations and 11 nominations were received for the Award for Higher Arts Education program. An adjudication committee composed of City staff and Council members with expertise in the visual, performing and literary arts reviewed the nominations at in July 2012.
